ACM SIGCHI ACE 2006 Hollywood - International Conference on Advances in Computer Entertainment Technology

Following the great success of ACE 2004 in Singapore and ACE 2005 in Valencia, we have great pleasure in announcing ACM SIGCHI ACE 2006 to be held in the capital of entertainment: Hollywood, USA on 14th - 16th June 2006 www.ace2006.org

Similarly to ACE in 2004/5, ACM, the world's leading computer science society will be publishing all accepted papers, in both the proceedings and the ACM Digital Library and the conference is fully in technical association with the prestigious ACM SIGCHI.

Furthermore, the Best Demo (Gold Medal), Best Paper (Gold Medal), and Excellent Paper prizes will again be awarded. Furthermore the Best papers will be published in the leading ACM publication: ACM Computers in Entertainment as well as the Journal of Virtual Reality and Broadcasting.

This year we have very exciting new developments such as new call for art works and the Exhibition: Leonardo II where we call for exhibitions in Interactive Art and Digital Cinema. Furthermore prizes will be given for the best art works.

Also we have an exciting line-up of Keynote Speakers which will be announced soon.

Please see the call for papers at www.ace2006.org

Prospective authors are now invited to submit Papers/Posters/Demos and Art Works via the conference website: http://www.ace2006.org by 15th February 2006
